Drop Apr. 15 HS Bond Issue; To Seek 80¢ Tax Increase

ONTARIO - Plans have been dropped to place a multi-million dollar bond issue on the April 15 trustee election ballot in the Chaffey Union High School District.

Board members, however, decided Monday night that the district will ask voter approval of a probable 80-cent increase in the tax rate to provide operational funds over the next two fiscal years.

Action to forego bond issue efforts until later in the year came on the recommendation of Superintendent Allan G. Smith, who said the administration requires more time to plan and interpret the district's future needs.

For the past four months, trustees have studied an analysis prepared by a survey team projecting a doubling of student enrollment over the next decade. The report, prepared by Dr. William Briscoe, professor of education emeritus, University of California at Los Angeles, indicated the district will require a minimum of $25 million to accommodate the growth.

Smith cited a dual reason in his recommendation to drop the bond issue from the impending ballot in pointing out that the district's level of education would drop if additional taxes are not approved.

"Of greatest concern to the district now is the need for additional operating funds. ...assessed valuation has not kept pace with enrollment and the district has been forced to cut the budget...in order to survive."

An outline of the budget requirements, prepared by business manager J. Milo Thomas, indicate budget deficits of $1.5 million next fiscal year and almost $5 million during 1970-71, if a tax rate increase is not approved by voters.

The current general purpose tax rate is $1.70 per $100 assessed valuation, augmented by permissive additional tax rates totalling 22.30 cents, for a total of $1.9230.

Favorable reaction from a citizens steering committee and board members will probably increase the general purpose tax rate to $2.50 per $100 assessed valuation, which would still be subject to the permissive rates.

Trustees decided to defer setting a definite tax increase figure until the Jan. 20 meeting--the deadline for such action in order to qualify for the April 15 ballot.

Chamber Schedules Full Jan. Calendar

Some of the activities are: --Industrial Committee, Gene Block, chairman: Has completed a new standard industrial survey of Upland which will be ready in mid-February. The committee will now take up a comprehensive land availability index, as an aid for firms wishing to locate in Upland. The committee has also approved the action of the city in acquiring the green belt near Cable airport and urges the completion of this project.

--Fireball 12, Ted Lyman, chairman: Report they have been rolling along and have 63 new members since July. Top Fireballers so far are Lyman, John Meyer, Clint Thompson, Bob Moering, Dewey Cable, Don Mitke, Roger Luby, Harvey Stone and Bernie Albers. Their next general meeting is Tues., Jan. 21, 6 p.m., Uplander Motor Hotel.

--Legislative Action Committee, Jay Leman, chairman: Is expanding to cover a broader range of current legislation on local, state and federal levels.

--Brochure and Publications Committee, Dick Heild, chairman: Is planning a new color brochure for mid-1969 incorporating the new civic center and Upland Museum. Also, planned is a new letterhead for Chamber stationery. The next meeting of the committee is Tues., Jan. 21, 7 a.m., community room, Upland Savings.

--Civic Affairs Committee,

The present excess tax rate of 95 cents above the statutory maximum of 75 cents was approved initially by voters nine years ago.

Traffic Meet Jan. 15

A meeting of the Upland school Traffic Committee and representatives of the Automobile Association of America will be held Wed., Jan. 15 to discuss the crossing guard criteria.

The criteria came under fire after 609 Citrus school area parents petitioned the city council for a crossing guard at the corner of Seventh street and San Antonio drive and were told the corner didn't meet the established criteria.

A crossing guard costs the city $1,224 per corner a school year.

Paul Hottel, chairman: Is doing research on the city sign ordinance and studying street problems.

--Aviation Committee has been newly formed and will hold its first meeting Tues., Jan. 14 at 8 a.m. at the Cable Airport cafe.

A crossing guard costs the city $1,224 per corner a school year.

'Welcome Sign' Bids To Be Let

Bids will be opened Wed., Jan. 15 at 2 p.m. in the council chambers, city hall, 177 "D" st., for the construction of the "Welcome To Upland" sign to be located at Foothill boulevard and Grove avenue.

The sign will be a pilot project and if it proves to be practical may be adopted as an official welcome sign to be used at the entrances of the city. It is a miniature kiosk with an El Camino Real bell in the center of it and is surrounded by artistic landscaping.

Threaten Condemnation Action

Commendation proceedings will be started on a 4 acre piece of property owned by Dewey Cable in the "green belt" area if negotiations between Cable and the city break down again before the next council meeting.

The Jan. 20 action was taken by the city council at Monday night's meeting after an angry exchange of words with Cable.

The 42 acres in the "green belt" area has been under discussion for many years. Originally it was planned as a buffer zone between the residential area and the clear zone at Cable airport.

After negotiations for a golf course fell through, it was decided that light industry might come in the area and a public hearing was held to this effect. After much discussion and negotiation, an ordinance was drafted to allow the industry and the city proceeded to acquire the necessary property.

The last piece of property to be acquired is the 4 acre parcel owned by Cable. Negotiations have been going on and off since 1966.

The city had offered to trade an equal parcel of property fronting on Benson avenue to Cable in exchange for a parcel that would complete the "green belt" area. Cable has turned down several offers including this one, the city said.

OUT OF LINE

Cable claims that Elwin Alder, city manager, who has been the spokesman for the city, is "out of line" on the negotiations. Alder says we have not cooperated in the matter and I'd like to know who has cooperated more than we have. He is offering me 2 1/2 acres less than mine is worth," said Cable.

Councilman Ronald Rossitter, told Cable that "you knew the clear zone at the airport had to be maintained or the airport couldn't operate. It is in your own interest to cooperate with us, so we can get the "green belt" to get industry."

It was brought out that vast sums of money from the public purse have been expended to maintain Cable Airport and the offer was a fair solution to the problem.

Councilman James Christensen said, "Cable you are capricious and selfish to spend taxpayers money to protect your property. The "green belt" is to protect your airport and our offer is a fair and equitable deal."

Alder said, "For all of the money we have out into the clear zone at the airport we could have built a complete civic center."

What's Doing In Upland?

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

WELCOME AND HATS OFF

Welcome to the five new policemen. We hope you like Upland. Also, hats off to the many local men who serve as reserve officers on the force. They do so on their own time and are a real asset to the community.

CHECK ORDINANCES

If Santa brought you a live instead of a stuffed animal for Christmas, a trip to city hall to check ordinances on the keeping of small animals might save time and money. Of course, the usual dog and cat are welcomed, it is the unusual pet like a panther, monkey or off-beat one your rich uncle sent from his African safari.

This type of pet has an ordinance governing his keeping, which ranges from "not at all" to "maybe" if certain restrictions are followed. So be sure and check.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Congratulations to the city and the downtown merchants for attractive Christmas decorations that were not hung too early they detracted from the real meaning of the season. One thing missing however, was some Christmas music, say about the last three days or all of Christmas week. Also, how about a Christmas lighting contest for homeowners? I saw very few outdoor displays and think a contest would add to the fun. This could be sponsored by merchants, the Chamber or a service club.

Become Involved

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

Elsewhere on this page is a list of civic meetings that are concerned with spending taxpayers' money.

We urge the voting public who are the taxpayers to look over the dates of the meetings and to plan to attend at least one.

Elected officials make and administer our laws and decide the role of government in our lives.

With a new year, it seems like a good time to get involved with civic matters, especially when it involves money, and to become an informed voting taxpayer.

Upland Gains Five Policemen

Upland's Police Dept. is starting the new year with five new police officers.

During their training they will attend classes, cover field problems and learn the rudiments of police work.

Police Chief John Wessely, said the new men bring the force to the authorized compliment of 35. There are also an authorized compliment of 20 reserve officers.

Following are the backgrounds of the new men.

William Roger Gettings was born in Los Angeles, in 1946. Lived in Ontario with his wife Lois. Attended Gravette high school in Gravette, Arkansas, and the University of Arkansas. Presently attending Chaffey College with a Police Science major. Discharged from the United States Army in August 1968 after service in Vietnam.

tending Chaffey College with a Police Science major. Discharged from the United States Army in December 1967 after serving 20 months in Vietnam. Awarded the Silver Star in September 1967 for "Gallantry in action".

Awarded the Purple Heart in May 1967 for wounds received in connection with military operations against a hostile force in Vietnam.

GOING TO SCHOOL -- Upland's five new policemen are now attending class as their first phase of training. Conducting the classes are Sgt. Howard Seay. Shown (from left) are William Gettings, Dahl Morgan, Sgt. Seay, Charles Leazott, Rodolfo Mora and Michael Teagle.

NEW CROSSING GUARD -- Paul Saltgaver is the new crossing guard hired indefinitely for the corner of Seventh street and San Antonio drive. His hiring is the outgrowth of a controversy which started when 609 parents in the Citrus school area petitioned the city council for a crossing guard after they had been turned down by the school safety committee who said the corner did not meet the established criteria for hiring crossing guards. After a meeting with the street and light committee which concurred with the safety committee, a mass meeting was held by the parents and they then petitioned the council again and won the crossing guard.

Park Bond Issue Due For May Vote

The Park bond issue was reviewed with an eye to calling an election early in May when the Parks and Recreation Committee met last week.

The group held its meeting in the Boys Club and toured the facilities. They recommended that a backstop be given to the club by the city.

In reviewing the park bond issue, the group decided the Park and Recreation committee would head the Park Bond Committee this time and that it would be expanded to include others for this one issue. Further study will be held on the issue, which will be voted on May 6. A $650,000 park bond issue was voted down last November.

In other business, the committee approved an entrance into San Antonio park on 24th st.

--Agreed to maintain the policy of charging a fee for clean-up to groups using the community building in Memorial park.

--Drafted a letter to remind the City of Ontario of the agreement they had with the City of Upland concerning the planting of trees along the median on Euclid street. The agreement was for uniform plantings and trees throughout the median from the city limits of Ontario through the city limits of Upland. A recent study by Ontario indicated that city may make some changes.

The committee will hold its next meeting Mon., Jan. 27, 4 p.m., Upland Memorial Park Community Building.

Walter Reardon Heads Liaison Committee

Walter Reardon, vice president of the chamber, has been appointed chairman of the new Guidelines Committee which will hold a meeting Wed., Jan. 15, 7:30 a.m., at the Stuft Shirt Restaurant.

The new committee will work together with the city, chamber and new business to promote better communications. Serving as co-chairman of the committee will be Lee Travers, an assistant city administrator. Also, serving on the committee are, Councilman James Christensen, John Myer, Modern Decorators, and Tony Malone, chamber manager.

Hair Length An Issue At School Board Meeting

ONTARIO - Campus regulation of student hair length became a point of mild confrontation between four teen-agers and Chaffey Union High School District trustees here Monday night.

Appearing at the board meeting to challenge the dress code restrictions at Upland high school were junior class members Dewey Bowen, 17; John Blanton, Matt Duggan and Ann Abell, all 16.

"I don't think the dress code is necessary to learning," said Blanton, who also charged the students have no representation through the student council and labeled the office of class president, "... a popularity contest." Dewey told board president Paul Cushing that the students' modes of dress should be taught at home, not at school.

"The length of our hair is a personal thing, and the school board has no right to tell us when to cut it," Dewey said. However, Cushing explained that the state Education Code provides district boards with authority for regulating student dress and appearance.

Superintendent Allan G. Smith explained that the code was established after receiving recommendations from student councils, PTA's and the district administration, agreeing, however, with Dewey's remarks.

"We do agree that the appearance of the student is a direct reflection of home influence--we are taking into account that some parents are more lax than others," Smith said.

Dewey reported that he had been sent home from classes twice because of complaints his hair was too long.

"A lot of kids have longer hair and aren't talked to at all. I was passing all classes, and I see no reason why I should have my hair cut if I'm doing well in school."

Superintendent Smith told the students they could take their grievances to the student council to effect changes in the dress code, if a majority supported the change, however, Dewey charged he had made suggestions on six occasions and was ignored.

Dewey and Blanton, who acted as Spokesman for Duggan and Miss Abell, both wore their hair long, but did not appear excessive of contemporary longer styles. They were accompanied by their mothers, who remained silent during the interchange with trustees.

The comparative calm of the discussion was threatened when Blanton told Cushing, "I'm with a band and I make $12 an hour--I don't think you make that much, and I make more money when my hair is long."

Trustee Mary Hecht told the students: "If you're going to spend most of your time fighting the establishment, you're not going to get an education."

Before the discussion became more heated, Superintendent Smith advised the quarter to return to the campus and seek desired changes in the dress code through the student council.

"If they make a recommendation, then the board may act on it," he said.

Sycamore Villa

The Christmas Cantata was presented by the Choral Group from the Church of God, in the beautifully decorated Sycamore Villa Mobile Home Recreation Hall. The program was indeed lovely and lightened the hearts of the residents with their beautiful singing and program. It made the Holiday season a little brighter and was a delight to all that attended.

The hall was a gala and most memorable Christmas gathering for the monthly pot luck. Our thanks to the owners of the park for the delicious ham so superbly prepared by Dottie Sanders. After the excellent dinner there was entertainment by the Belongies. The 3 talented youngsters age 7, 9, and 10 put on an unforgettable program.

The John Seymour house welcomed a visit from their son Allen, who is with the Air Force stationed in Florida. Allen was so impressed by --the -- beautifully -- Christmas decorated park as he says there is very little of the displays where he is living.

Jack and Dorothy Tate of space 38, sponsors of the First Lutheran Church Luther League, took the local league officers to the South Pacific Lutheran League Convention at the Hilton Hotel - San Francisco over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. Harley Newman - space 31 was hostess at the park recreation hall for a potluck dinner Christmas Party held by the Montclair Home Extension Club. 30 persons were in attendance. Exchange gifts were presented.

Loren Powers is home nursing a back injury. Tom Cummings is home from the hospital following his heart attack and reported doing very well. It is reported that all that were on the sick list are now recuperating.

Ruth Circle of Cucamonga Methodist Church met with Mary Herron recently.

The Christmas Ladies Luncheon held every month at Sycamore Villa Recreation Hall was well attended and a good time was had by everyone. The tables were delightfully decorated in the Christmas theme. Light conversation and warm friendliness was most heartwarming.

Birthdays celebrated for the month of December were: Myron Hanson, Stanley Uffner, Hazel Pigg, Rose Beck, Mason Wind, Ken Shively, Laura Davis, Bob Bennett, Dorothy Tate, Grace Shanks, and Harold Snetten.

When arranging flowers, you can extend the stems for extra height by placing the stem in a soda straw. In the case of smaller, shorter flowers, stick a toothpick into the stem. This is also helpful when using modeling clay as a flower holder.

'Getting To Know You' Promotes Understanding

FIRST GRADERS -- Listening intently as Officer Gary Hart of the Upland Police Dept. describes his job, are Cabrillo school first graders. The officer visited the classroom as part of a school-police sponsored program. Mrs. Robbins is their teacher.

Cabrillo Elementary School recently held a cooperative school-police program called "Getting To Know You," which helps pupils understand the policeman's job and gives them an opportunity to develop a person to person relationship with the police.

The morning is set aside for the visitation in the classrooms by the individual policemen and is climaxed by having lunch in the student area with the students.

A question and answer period follows after the policeman has told of his background, experience, education and family and gives the student an opportunity to ask questions that concern them. The first visitation was made in October to the sixth grade and the officers at that time discussed safety procedures for trick or treaters.

The second visit held recently was to the first grade classrooms and were made by Officers Gary Hunt, Doug Long, Richard Gabbins and Capt. Fred Strohte.

The visits are informal, friendly. The purpose is to help build better rapport between pupils, and by police, by informing pupils of duties and responsibilities of the police, and emphasizing the fact that a policeman is a friend," Richard Riley, principal, of Cabrillo, said.

"Visits are monthly - by grade level. The number of officers for each month depends on number of classes per grade level.

QUESTION TIME -- Cabrillo school first graders raise their hands to ask Officer Richard Gabbins of the Upland Police Dept. questions about his job. Looking on is Mrs. Galbraith, their teacher, and Vern Orum, superintendent of Upland City Schools. The policeman's visit was part of a school-police sponsored program.

DAR Plans Conservation Session

San Antonio Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held a luncheon meeting at the Upland Inn, Dec. 30.

The Regent, Mrs. Elmer J. Dahlstrom, reviewed the work of the past year and of the coming year.

It was reported by the conservation chairman, Miss Ora Lewis, that the Guasti park is to be begun in June of 1969 and completed by June, 1970.

The next meeting, to be held Jan. 27, in the Ontario Public Library, will feature a speaker from the San Bernardino County Fish and Game Commission and will be on conservation.

A social hour followed the business meeting. Guests were Mrs. Claire C. Robertson and her daughter, Miss Mariana Robertson.

Eight local youths got a chance to see special interest points in Southern California this past week in a one day sight-seeing outing.

The time was well spent and the kids enjoyed themselves according to their tour host, a director of the Upland Teen center - which was the sponsor of the program.

The day long affair involved the viewing of various interest points such as Mt. Baldy, Knott's Berry Farm, and parts of Los Angeles.

More such outings are planned in the future by the Center, especially during the vacation months.

Douglas has traveled extensively throughout Europe and is well versed on the political situation of the various countries on that continent. Education in the nation's schools is free, and 99 out of every 100 persons can read and write.

Pulse Of The Plaid

Upland High

Long vacations, such as Christmas vacation, result in surprisingly peppy teachers and naturally lazy students. This causes a myriad of "under-the-breath" and "behind-the-back" comments made by over-worked students. Those teachers who receive a good portion of these remarks are those who teach math, science and English.

In math, it is a new and important chapter which takes at least a month to cover but must be learned in three weeks, which prompts these phrases. In history there are those lovely end-of-the-semester term papers on which you had better get started and in English it is those in-depth-studies of an author whose works you had best begin reading. Naturally, most of this is due a week before finals so the teacher can correct all of the papers. Finals are in three weeks.

Those students in possession of books such as "2,000 Insights For All Occasions" score highly with their peers for their imaginative back-talk. So be prepared, fellow pupils of Upland High, in those free moments in which you are not studying, sharpen your rapier wit on your brother, sister, mother, father, worst enemy or anyone else who is handy. As for those rats who are not in any bad situation, you can forget about coming to my cookie party next week.

Upland Native Elected V-P For SC Edison

Howard P. Allen, prominent Claremont attorney, has been elected Vice President and Assistant to the President of Southern California Edison Company, it was announced today at Edison's general headquarters in Los Angeles.

A virtually life-long Valley resident, Allen was born in Upland, attended grammar school and high school in Ontario, and was graduated from Pomona College as a Phi Beta Kappa before going on to Stanford Law School.

He received his degree from Stanford in 1951, and served there as assistant dean of the Law School and Assistant Professor of Law prior to joining the Edison Company in 1954.

Allen served at Edison as Special Assistant, Assistant to the Vice President, and Special Counsel before being elected Vice President in 1962. At age 36, he was the youngest man ever to become an Edison vice president.

His new assignment confers broad new responsibilities as assistant to Edison President T.M. McDaniel, Jr.

Allen has served as a member of the board of directors of California Federal Savings and Loan Assn., California Taxpayers' Assn., and the California County Government Education Foundation—and was a member of the first board of Southern California Rapid Transit District from 1964 to 1967.

His professional affiliations include membership in the American Bar Association, California State Bar Association, Los Angeles and San Francisco Bar Associations, and American Jurisprudence Society.

In addition, he is a member of the California State Chamber of Commerce, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Electric Club of Los Angeles, Pacific Coast Electrical Association, Free and Accepted Masons, Al Malaikah Temple Shrine.

Allen and his wife, Dixie, reside at 2541 Mountain ave., Claremont. They have an 11-year-old daughter, Alisa Cary.

FOR THE FAMILY MANAGER

ITEM: Cranberry stains on the rug call for quick first aid. Take up the excess with a spatula and sponge the spot with a clean white cloth dampened with lukewarm water. If stain is not removed, consult a professional rug cleaner.

ITEM: Poinsettias grow healthier foliage and flowers in red clay pots. They cannot be easily over-watered in porous clay containers which give poinsettias proper drainage, and aid lasting qualities of the traditional holiday gift plant.

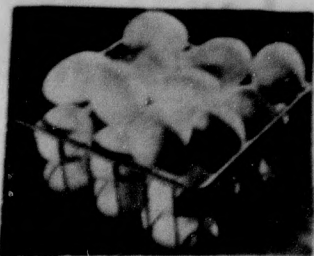

ITEM: You can make a gay tablecloth by covering your table with metal foil and placing a wide width of nylon net or tulle (thin stiff transparent muslin) over the foil. Fasten holly or greenery at the corners.

ITEM: When painting a wall, start where the wall and ceiling meet. Decorating experts advise that paint should be applied in the direction of the wall's shortest dimension; on a long wall, paint up and down; paint across on a short wall.

ITEM: Polyester is the family name for a whole group of fibers, including such trade names as Dacron, Kodel, Vycron and Fortrel.

Chicago Omelette
3 eggs
2 tablespoons water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon white pepper
1 oz. sliced ham
1 oz. sliced mushrooms
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon chopped chives
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon tarragon

Place butter in 8" skillet over moderate heat. Beat eggs, water, salt and pepper thoroughly with a fork. Add remaining ingredients. Pour egg mixture into pan. Then when the bottom is slightly browned and the top is still a bit creamy, roll the omelette, slide it out of the pan, and enjoy it!

Separate Bacon Easily

Do you have trouble separating bacon slices? One way is to remove the bacon package from the refrigerator five to ten minutes before cooking. Place the thin edge of a rubber scraper under the top slice and lift off individual slices. If several slices of bacon are to be cooked, peel off the whole group and place it in the pan. The slices can be separated as the bacon begins to cook.

Phone Executive To Speak To Valley Chamber Group

Frank C. Lord, assistant vice president of Pacific Telephone Co., has been named chairman of the third annual business outlook conference, "Outlook '69," to be held Friday, January 10 at Pasadena's Huntington Sheraton Hotel.

The conference is sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce and the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. Lord, who joined the Telephone Company as a service representative, has been an employee for 40 years. He was promoted to positions as general information manager, general commercial manager and assistant general manager, and was named to his present position in 1964. He holds responsibility for personnel, public affairs, public relations, benefit and medical functions. The program will feature five separate forecasts on economic and business conditions in the Valley: Aerospace, Retailing, Real Estate and Construction, the Ontario Raceway, and the Outlook for Continuing Economic Expansion. Speakers will be outstanding leaders in the business and economic field, selected for their capacity to give penetrating insights into these critical areas.

"Businessmen who attend this conference will gain a measurable return through investing their time--the chance to obtain greater profits in 1969 through more effective planning," Lord said.

Real Estate Facts

BUYING VS RENTING TAKES NEW TURN

The old question of which is cheaper, to buy or rent housing, is taking on new perspective as building costs rise and the housing supply gets shorter.

On the cost side, lumber prices have been soaring, wages of construction workers are up at the rate of about seven percent a year, and land costs in most urban areas are increasing. Add higher financing costs for builders and the completed single family dwelling carries a price tag some 20% higher than a comparable one three years ago.

For the buyer of that new house, there must be added higher property taxes and a mortgage interest rate that probably is in the area of 7 1/4 to 7 1/2. House payments will reflect all of those rising costs immediately. Some studies have shown this rise between 1965 and 1968 to be about 30%.

Since rental rates during the same period rose an average of 6%, at first glance it would seem that renting is cheaper than buying these days, at least when considering new construction.

It is axiomatic that rental rates will be slower to reflect construction costs than a new tract of houses. A builder of single family homes must get his costs back plus whatever profit he can, and he must get it at once. The owner of a new apartment building will get what rental he can according to the market also, but he is dealing with a vacancy factor as well.

If there is a high vacancy factor, few renters, for instance, will pay $125 a month in a new apartment building for space, conveniences, and location roughly comparable to what they can get for $100 in an older building.

When there aren't many vacant apartments and he hasn't much choice, he's more likely to pay the $125.

Very few apartment builders want to take the chance that he will.

They try, instead, to cut costs by building higher on the lot, thus spreading the land cost over more units, or by other economies. They may even figure rentals eyeball to eyeball with costs, gambling that the market will keep on rising and they can increase rents into a more comfortable position in a year or so.

In the meantime, the owner of the older apartment building is going to raise rentals more cautiously, usually as he must to recover increased taxes and upkeep and still stay below rentals for new construction.

All of this puts a damper on the rise in rental rates and on the short haul does cost a family less cash outlay than in more normal times. But on the long haul, it means the family is in a better cash position if it buys a home. The price of a house now is pegged to today's conditions. The mortgage will be based on today's price and will not rise during its life, say for the next 25 years. Only tax and insurance rises will increase the monthly payment. Not so in rentals. Their rates will rise as the cost of living rises and in keeping with the cost of new construction to replace worn out buildings.

In 25 years when the mortgage is paid not only will the family who bought a home be paying only taxes and upkeep, but it will have the value of the house as a form of forced savings.

This example is oversimplified because there are other considerations than just cost when a family decides whether to buy or rent. Any real estate broker knows from experience that the average family will not stay in a particular house 25 years. Nevertheless, the principle holds.

The oversimplification is only to point out that the difference between buying and renting is not always what it seems. If you are really in a position to choose, get all the facts before you decide.

A GIRL'S DREAM -- California Citrus Queen Rhonda Brokaw is probably reflecting on her childhood as she sits surrounded by part of the doll collection of Mrs. Frank C. Reed of San Bernardino, who won "Best of Show" trophy in Hobby Show held during the 1967 National Orange Show. Mrs. Reed plans to enter the 1969 Hobby Show during 11-day Orange Show run next March.

MISSILE WATCHDOG OF THE NORTH ... Three radar sites make up the North America Air Defense Command's Ballistic Missile Early Warning System, which scans the top of the world to give warning of an intercontinental ballistic missile attack against North America. Locations of the sites are Clear, Alaska; Thule, Greenland; and Flyingdunes Moor in Northern England. The huge steel antennas are the size of a football field on its side and have an effective range of more than 3,000 miles.

Orchard Heater Program In Co. Proves Successful

It was announced last week by Supervisor Ruben S. Ayala, Chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors that at the close of this year the orchard heater permit program is in its final stages for this season.

Of 1,092 applications mailed out (a reduction of 24 from last season) to citrus and other growers using orchard heaters, 867 have been returned with proper fees, heaters in good repair, reasonably clean, and permits to keep and use heaters have been sent to the grower.

Eighty-six other permits have been sent to growers to keep, but not fire, the heaters. This is 56 less than last season. This permit requires less fee than the firing permit. It is the choice of the grower as to which type permit he shall receive.

An even dozen permits have not been approved because the heaters were not properly cleaned.

Eighty applications have been returned and no permits will be issued because the heaters are no longer in the grove. This is 43 more than last season, more than double the number returned. An undetermined number of groves have never had heaters but the grower continued to return his application year after year and sign the non-firing affidavit. Fees were not required for a non-firing permit prior to June 11, 1968.

Growers have returned 14 non-firing applications but did not send the required basic fee. These growers are now in violation of APCD Regulations for keeping orchard heaters without a permit. Two applications have been voided, having been issued in error. Delinquent notices have been sent to 5 growers and 5 others have not bothered to reply to application notices sent out.

A few scattered groves were fired during the week of December 15-20; but extensive firing was done during the early morning hours of Saturday and Sunday December 21 and 22 when the temperature dropped to the low 20's.

Nineteen Air Pollution Violations notices have been written this month regarding orchard heaters. Of these 19 reports, 8 were for not having a permit, 7 for excess smoke, 2 for burning at excess rate, and 1 each for burning tires and failing to clean heaters.

Fee receipts so far this season amount of $14,846.15, almost double the total for last season. The reason for the fee increase was to place more of the cost of administering the orchard heater service into the area where direct monetary returns are received and relieve the general taxpayer of the excess burden whereby he receives no direct monetary return. The benefits to the average citizen may be reckoned in a healthier environment provided by the orchard heater program.

The cooperation of 87% of the growers with the orchard heater program is extremely good. The grower, however, has his problems. The age, inexperience, immaturity, adequate number of heater firing crews has been advanced by some growers as placing them in a critical position with saving their crops. The extremely low temperatures for long periods of time, and not being able to refuel their heaters placed some growers in a defensive stance just to save their groves from destruction.

UCLA Scholarship Deadline Approaches

Local high school seniors who wish to be considered for UCLA Alumni Association Scholarships must send their completed applications to the UCLA Office of Financial Aids by January 15, 1969, according to Mrs. John Moran, Pomona Valley Chairman of the UCLA Alumni Association Scholarship Program.

The Counselors' Confidential Statement and a set of transcripts through the 11th grade must be mailed by January 15 by the counselor to the UCLA Office of Financial Aids on behalf of each senior applying for an Alumni scholarship.

Applications for these Alumni scholarships are now available in the office of the high school senior counselor or contact Mrs. Moran, phone, 599-1589.

UCLA Alumni Association scholarships range from $350 to $500. Winners will be selected in March by the Pomona Valley Alumni Association Scholarship Program committee, who will also nominate outstanding seniors for major awards of $1,500.

Only one application need be filed by a student in order to apply for all award categories. Filing deadline is January 15, 1969. The amount of funds available to the Pomona Valley Alumni Scholarship committee will be determined by the number of valid applications received from local high schools, according to Mrs. Moran.

Singer-Actors Sought By Light Opera

"Auditions for men principal singer-actors, chorus singers and dancers for 'Irma La Douce' will be held Saturday, January 11 in the Municipal Auditorium," announced San Bernardino Civic Light Opera General Manager C. Dale Jenks.

"Irma La Douce" will star popular television and motion picture personality and actress Ruta Lee in the title role.

No show has ever had firmer claim to bring the hit of Paris, London and New York than this bouncy French musical. It is scheduled to open in San Bernardino in the California Theatre February 7. After its initial opening in Paris in 1956 it ran nearly four years. An English version was adapted for British audiences with unqualified success. It's saucy French humor and music delighted Britons for nearly four years. Broadway producer David Merrick presented "Irma" starting in 1960 for better than a year. A long road tour followed.

Those auditioning should telephone Turner 2-2545 or stop in at the San Bernardino Civic Light Opera office, 2079 North E Street in San Bernardino for an audition appointment.

The Association accompanist will be present. Those auditioning should bring their own music and be prepared to sing.

Magnolia School Christmas Program

Christmas in drama and song was the theme of the Magnolia school Christmas presentation held before the school closed for the holidays.

All of the grades had some part in the program. The kindergarten classes formed a choir, wearing white collars and bright red ties to sing favorite Christmas carols.

First graders made cut outs resembling bells, santas, reindeer, and Christmas packages and did several songs and dances. Featured was "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer."

Fourth grade students presented a play entitled "by Our Love" which had a space theme. Also featured was a choir.

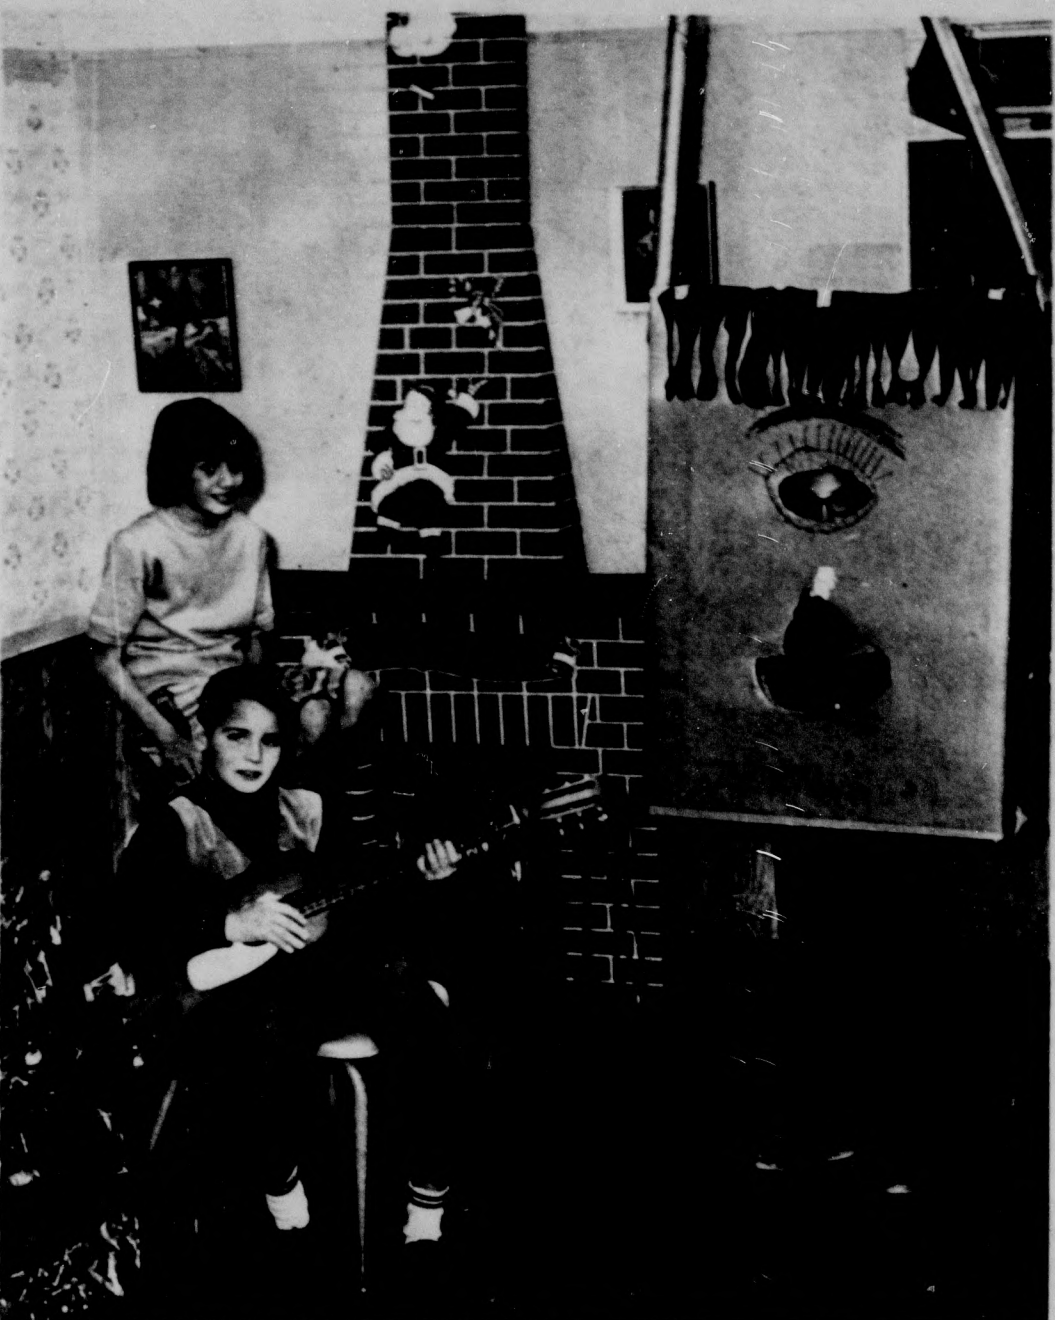

Following the program, refreshments were served and gifts distributed.

Some of the children included in the program were: Russ Fahrner, Jeff Baker, Dan Bownell, Augie Galaz, Kevin Greer, Rod Griffin, Dor Hansen, Jim Landon, John Ling, Ricky Loya, Bruce Sevy, Ty Slyder, David Summers, Holly Emrich, Lori Evans, Julie Flammang, Sheri Grossberg, Peggy Jones, Kimm Koontz, Cindy Lasagna, Vicki Leone, Sharen McBurney, Kitty Perry, James Barker, Marybeth Rodriguez, Bryan Wolf, David Summers, and Chuck Riddle.

Teachers participating were Mrs. Evelyn Jordan, Kindergarten, Mrs. Bette Waggoner, first grade, and Mrs. Donna Pugh, fourth grade.

EPILEPSY -- Facts versus Fears

In 400 B.C., Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine", tried to change the public attitude toward epilepsy by offering a theory that the symptoms came from natural causes, rather than that the victim was "possessed by demons". Today, twenty-four centuries later, doctors agree that understanding is one of the best medicines in treatment of the condition known as epilepsy.

While great strides have been made in increasing public awareness of the truth about the ailment, there is still unwarranted discrimination against the person with epilepsy—in schools, employment, law. In a few states, epileptics are still cruelly classified as "imbeciles, idiots, insane persons", even though some of the greatest minds in history (Julius Caesar, Buddha, St. Paul, Napoleon, Socrates, Alfred Nobel, William Pitt, Handel, Tschalkovsky) are suspected to have belonged to epileptic persons.

What is epilepsy? It is a disorder of the central nervous system, marked by measurably increased electrical discharges within the brain. The Electroencephalograph (E.E.G.) is the diagnostic tool for this measurement. There are four different types of seizures, but all have one thing in common: the sudden, disorderly discharge of impulses from nerve fibers in the brain.

Causes? About 30% of epilepsy cases can be traced to brain damage resulting from injury or illness. The rest are of undetermined cause.

Treatment? It is vital that a person with epilepsy be under medical supervision. New medications and new combinations of drugs are constantly being developed for control of seizures. At the present time, some 50% of persons with epilepsy can be kept entirely free of seizures, and another 30% to 35% held to rare seizures. Surgery can be employed in those few cases where a known lesion causing epilepsy can be reached. The psychiatrist plays a role in treating epilepsy, for emotional factors influence convulsive disorders.

Whom does epilepsy strike? It appears in all social, economic, and racial groups. It can develop at any time but usually begins before age twenty. Most persons with epilepsy have normal intelligence; as with the general population, some are brilliant some are slow.

Cure? Since epilepsy is a symptom, not a disease, no general cure can be expected, unless by lucky accident, until a basic cause of the symptom is discovered. In a few cases, nature does the healing and seizures disappear, sometimes at puberty.

Answering some common questions:
...most doctors do not think epilepsy is hereditary
...most doctors do not think epilepsy is hereditary

...most children with epilepsy should attend regular schools, join in sports and activities within physician-approved limits
...most adults are capable of working in any but the most hazardous jobs
...people with epilepsy and with no accompanying illness are completely normal except while suffering a seizure

...epilepsy is not catching
...in most states, a person with well-controlled epilepsy may drive a car, may marry, may have children

...insurance companies are gradually becoming willing to issue automobile, health, and life policies to persons with medically controlled epilepsy, although usually at higher premium than required of persons in normal health

Recognizing a major epileptic seizure: A typical convulsion may occur, starting with a scream or cry. Consciousness is usually lost.

Cal Poly Float Wins Princess Award Again

For the second year in a row, the Princess Award in the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena has been won by California State Polytechnic College, Pomona and San Luis Obispo.

The Princess Award is given to the float showing the best display of animation. The Cal Poly entry, "The Good Old Days," featured an old-fashioned locomotive engine bearing down on an unsuspecting Clarabelle Cow. The engine stopped just in time, blew smoke, tipped its hat and bowed. The cow noticed the train engine, but continued chewing her cud and swishing her tail.

Students of the two state colleges provide the funds and manpower to build the float. The majority of the construction takes place on the Cal Poly, Pomona campus. Many of the flowers for the float are grown by the students.

It was the sixth major award for Cal Poly entries since the colleges began entering floats in the parade in 1949. The more prestigious awards were in 1957 and 1959 when Cal Poly was awarded the "Theme Prize." In 1966, the local college entry won the "Judge's Special Trophy," and in 1967, the Mayor's Trophy. Last year's float, "The Mouse That Got Away," was awarded the "Princess Award."

The Scorpion

The scorpion uses its poisonous sting both to defend itself and deliver a lethal blow to its prey. The poison causes a painful wound in man, but generally has no serious effect.

Seven Salesmen Complete Sales-Sonics Program

Seven salesmen from the Pomona area were presented with diplomas recently, signifying their proficiency in salesmanship upon completing the Sales-Sonics training course in gas air conditioning.

Those receiving diplomas included: Duke Haley, Pomona District Manager for Wright's Mfg. Inc.; Jim MacArthur, Prestige Air Conditioning Co.; Ray Wellman, Granger's Air Conditioning Co.; and Ralph Olson, Graf Air Conditioning Co.

Others were Bob Stoker, West Covina Heating and Air Conditioning, and Seth Grafke and Bill Fish of Southern California Conditioned Air Co.

The Sales-Sonics concept of training salesmen was created by Larry Wilson, one of America's most dynamic speakers on the subject of human relations and selling.

says Gene O'Rourke, manager of air conditioning sales for Southern Counties Gas Co., who sponsored the course.

The nine-session course included the following topics: creativity, human motivation and relations, the sales approach, asking questions, presenting solutions, word pictures, listening, answering objections and closing.

"The objective of Sales-Sonics," said O'Rourke, "is to build sales by increasing the effectiveness of the organization's sales personnel."

Sales-Sonics is designed to help the prospective salesmen learn the "hows" and "whys" of selling. "In this manner," O'Rourke says, "the salesman is able to create his own ideas on how to sell. He is trained how to successfully change and adapt his ideas to any selling situation."

You Guessed It, State Income Forms Mailed

Nearly six million 1968 State income tax forms are on their way to California taxpayers as the Franchise Tax Board completed its annual mailing on December 30.

Most California taxpayers will receive a packet of materials containing Form 540 and an instruction booklet, said Martin Huff, Executive Officer. However, if a taxpayer has moved since filing his return last year, he will not receive his forms directly in the mail and should plan to pick them up at one of the many distribution points located throughout the State.

An additional five million forms are being mailed to banks, chambers of commerce, some U.S. Post Office facilities, and offices of the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Motor Vehicles, and the State Department of Employment. Taxpayers who do not receive forms directly in the mail may pick them up at the above locations or at any office of the Franchise Tax Board, or upon request, they will be sent from the main office at 1025 P street, Sacramento.

Single persons with an adjusted gross income of $3,250 or more, and married couples with an adjusted gross income of $6,500 or more, are required to file a return.

The filing deadline is April 15, but an early start in preparing returns may be beneficial to the taxpayer, Huff pointed out.

PFFS Officer At Workshop In Pittsburgh

Thomas O. Matzen, senior vice president of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association has returned from the recent research workshop for savings institutions given in Pittsburgh, Penn., by the U.S. Savings and Loan League and the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks.

The program included discussion of research resources and their application to individual management problems, effective utilization of consulting services, operation research, and a series of individual workshops.

BRIDGING THE MIGHT COLORADO - A helicopter, balancing delicately against the strong desert winds, threads the first lines for Southern California Edison Company's Extra High Voltage (500,000-volt) conductor cables, which will span the river between Arizona and Nevada, about 25 miles south of Hoover Dam. The transmission system, when completed next year, will deliver major quantities of new, low-cost electric power from Four Corners, New Mexico, to millions of Southland customers.

TAX ANSWERS ?

Q - When my return was audited, your examiner said I owed $50 more in tax. I don't agree. Is there any way I can protest this assessment without getting involved with legal fees and so forth?

A - Yes, you may request a district conference at which you can present your side of the dispute to an impartial third party. It is not necessary to lodge a formal protest to obtain a conference or to engage legal counsel.

Procedures for requesting a conference are outlined in a letter you will receive from IRS setting forth the results of the examination of your return.

Q - I just took a job which requires me to do a lot of traveling. For tax purposes will I have to keep track of the money I spend on the road?

A - If you account to your employer for these expenses and your reimbursement does not exceed these expenses you will not have to report them on your tax return. Employees who are not reimbursed for their business travel costs should keep records of what they spend and claim a business expense deduction for them when they file their income tax returns.

For details on record keeping, send a post card to your district director. Ask for Publication 463, Rules for Deducting Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses.

Q - I give my maid money for her bus fare. Do I have to pay social security tax on this as well as her wages?

A - Yes, The Social Security tax applies to the total amount of cash paid to a household employee for wages and transportation. The value of any bus tokens or meals or other non-cash items you provide is not covered by this tax. However, if cash is given in lieu of these items it constitutes wages.

Tax payments for the July, August, September quarter were due 10/31. Any person who has paid $50 or more cash wages in a quarter to an employee for household services (cleaning, gardening, etc.) must file and pay this tax using Form 942.

Q - My father is going into a rest home. Can we still claim him as a dependent even though he no longer lives with us?

A - Yes, a close relative does not have to be a member of your household to qualify as a dependent.

If your father is entering a rest home primarily because of the medical care provided there, the entire cost of his maintenance is considered a medical expense. If personal or family reasons prompted the decision for him to enter the home, only those expenses specifically for medical care will be considered deductible medical expenses.

Q - I have an offer to sell some property I own near a resort area. The buyer wants to pay me over a period of years and says that way I can save on my Federal taxes. Is that right?

A - When certain conditions are met, gross profits on a sale may be reported over the period in which the payments are received. To qualify, payments during the year of the sale must be 30 per cent or less of the selling price.

Depending on your tax bracket and other income, the option of reporting your profits over a period of years may provide a tax advantage. For details on these sales, send a post card to your District Office and ask for a copy of IRS Document 5108, Installment and Deferred-Payment Sales.

Q - I took quite a few chances on a car our local fire department raffled off this summer. Can I take a charitable deduction for the cost of these tickets?

A - No, you cannot.

They are considered to be gambling losses which are deductible only to the extent of gambling winnings.

Q - I went through an employment agency to get my present job. Can I deduct the fees I had to pay them?

A - Yes, employment agency fees are deductible for taxpayers who itemize.

Q - What should I do about my withholding to be sure I get a refund next year? I just started my first full-time job.

A - Do not claim an exemption for yourself on the withholding certificate you fill out for your employer. This will result in more being taken out of your paycheck.

Note that if you do not claim all the exemptions you are entitled to for withholding purposes you have not forfeited your right to claim them at a later date. You can, and should, claim all exemptions you are entitled to on your income tax return.

Last year, about 50 million refund checks were issued to taxpayers who were over withheld.

Guests Named For Durante, Prowse Shows

Singers O.C. Smith and the Osmond Brothers are included in the lineup of stars who will appear at Melodyland this month as part of its winter celebrity series.

Smith, whose recording of "Little Green Apples" has already sold more than a million copies, will be seen as special guest star with "The Juliet Prowse Show," opening Tuesday, Jan. 14. Also featuring comedienne Barbara Heller, the Prowse show plays through Sunday, Jan. 19.

Then comes Jimmy Durante, who lists as his special guest stars the Osmond Brothers. At Melodyland for a week Jan. 21-26, Durante will also feature his perennial sidekick, Eddie Jackson, and the little Pearce Sisters.

Next attraction at the Anaheim theatre-in-the-round will be the Southern California concert debut of that singing family, The Cowbells, set for two performances Saturday, Jan. 11, at 7 and 10.

ALL BROWNIES

A special vote of thanks goes out to Troop 586 for their visit to Magic Towers in Pomona. We are grateful to them and their leaders, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Penner, for the delightful poem they sent us with all their signatures.

Even King Arthur's, Queen Guinevere's and Sir Lancelot's hearts would be touched by your poem.

We will treasure it forever! We are so proud of you and your poem we now wish to have it printed for the public to enjoy as well.

Of course, you are always welcome at Magic Towers. We hope that all the Brownies throughout America will follow your lead to enjoy Castleburgers and Knightburgers at the Magic Towers, and sit at the Round Table of King Arthur and his Royal Court.

Operation I-Q Concentrated Drive To Give Up Smoking

"Operation I.Q.", a concentrated effort by volunteers of the American Cancer Society to impress smokers with the danger of lung cancer caused by cigarette smoking, gets under way Monday January 6 with a whirlwind tour of major California cities.

Allan K. Jonas, 1969 President of the State Division of the Cancer Society, said today he will personally visit cities from San Diego to San Francisco to promote "Operation I.Q.", a plan which originated recently in Orange County.

At a strategy meeting with ACS volunteers actor-producer-director Cornel Wilde and Dr. Sol Baker, noted cancer authority and Professor of Radiology at UCLA, Jonas said, "This is a new approach. By giving publicity to those who climb on the non-smoking bandwagon--presenting them with 'I Quit' buttons at public meetings, we feel many who have been threatening to quit smoking will find an added incentive to do so."

Jonas cited figures from the Society's year-end report showing how the increase in lung cancer in the U.S., now 14 times more prevalent than in 1935, will claim 59,000 lives in 1969 in the U.S. alone. "This means that 5,900 will succumb to lung cancer in California in 1969 at a rate of approximately 16 people per day," he said.

Jonas quoted the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare as stating that lung cancer is today the leading cause of cancer death in man, adding, "the most chilling aspect of lung cancer is that cures are rare. Ninety-five out of every 100 people who get lung cancer are dead within five years. Even the first-year survival rate is only 25%."

Operation "I.Q." is aimed at reaching those people who respond to the record of others who have already quit and who serve as an example, proving it can be done. Both Cornel Wilde and Dr. Baker, as well as Jonas, are former smokers who have now quit.

JULIET AT MELODYLAND - The vivacious Juliet Prowse brings her all-new Las Vegas production to Anaheim's Melodyland Theatre Jan. 14-19 for a limited one-week-only engagement. "The Juliet Prowse Show" will play a total of eight performances through Sunday, Jan. 19. Singer O. C. Smith, whose recordings of Roger Miller's "Little Green Apples" sold more than a million copies, will be special guest star in the show that also features comedienne Barbara Heller, seen this year on the Dean Martin Summer Show.

L.A. Open Due To Start Jan. 9 At Rancho Park

The venerable Los Angeles Open, back to its old, accustomed position of first on the tour, opens the 1969 golfing tour at Rancho Park in West Los Angeles Thursday (Jan. 9). There will be a pro-amateur prelude to the 43rd edition of the $100,000 tourney on Wednesday.

The Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce - sponsored tourney had been a fixture as first until last year when the PGA juggled its schedule and put Crosby as the initial event. The Open is back at its long-time home, the 6800 yard Rancho course, after a year's stopover at Brookside Park in Pasadena.

Bill Casper, Jr. is the defending champion. He won his first L.A. Open last winter and went on from there to capture a remarkable total of six tournaments during 1968 and accumulated earnings of more than $200,000.

A large share of the other big names of golf, including Open king Lee Trevino, Masters champion Bob Goalby, George Archer, Dan Sikes, Bob Lunn, Bob Murphy, Dave Stockton, Frank Beard, Miller Barber, Bruce Crampton, Gardner Dickinson, Kermit Zarley, Al Geiberger, Don January, Gene Littler, Chi-Chi Rodriguez, Dale Douglass, Bob Nichols, Doug Sanders, Art Wall and R.H. Sikes will try to dethrone Casper. Arnold has said many times the rolling Rancho course is among his favorites.

But he has not committed himself and only has until Sunday evening (Jan. 5) to make a decision. Palmer presently is in Palm Springs shooting commercials and trying to work his game into shape for the tour.

Jack Nicklaus, an infrequent starter at Los Angeles, and Julius Boros, the PGA king, are the other notables missing from the event.

The pros made the decision to move the event away from Brookside and back to Rancho. The Westside layout is a superior course and is rated one of the finest public layouts in the West.

The touring stars will find the Rancho greens in as good a shape as they've been for years. The fairway grass is a little thin and the recent cold weather has kept the rough from growing to where it could be much of a factor.

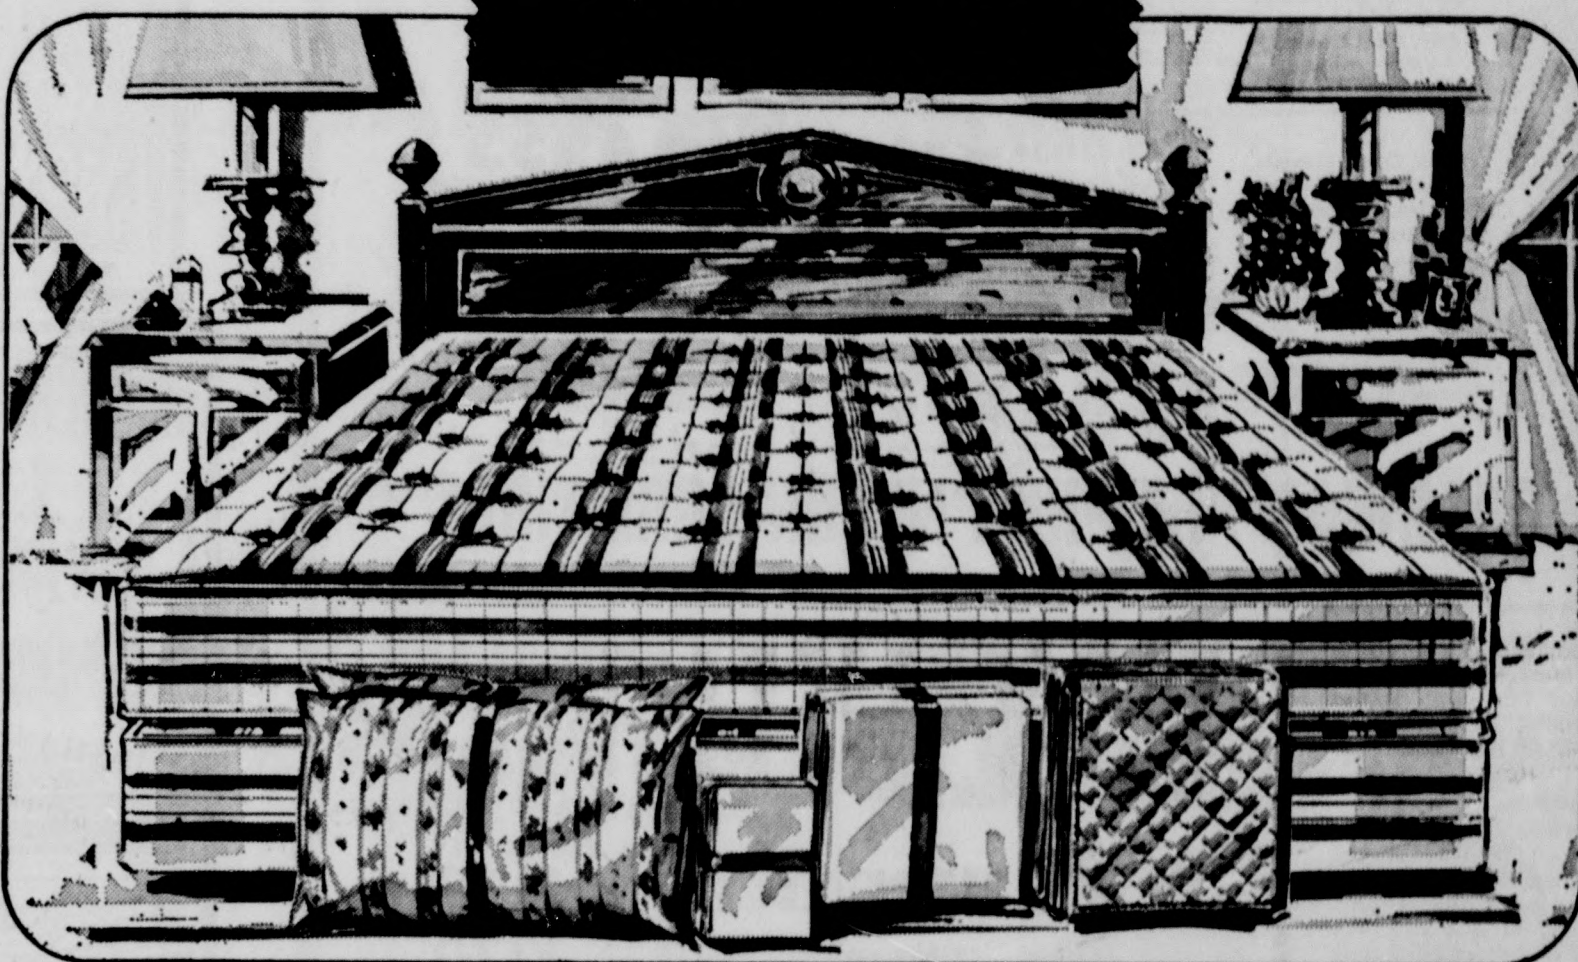

Rancho plays par-71 at 6800 yards and its fairways are very wide. The course record of 268 was set by Phil Rodgers several years ago.

THE UGLY PINATA -- is the choice of Panchita, in this scene from "Las Posadas" at Padua Hills theatre north of Claremont. This 37th annual Christmas in Mexico play will close on January 11. Performances are given at 8:30 p.m. Wednesdays through Saturdays with matinees at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Victor Suarez portrays the pinata vendor, Cynthia Alba plays Panchita, a young villager and Pedro Rubio, her friend, Padua Hills theatre is located on Padua avenue, three miles north of Foothill Blvd. in Claremont. Reservations for theatre and the Padua Dining Room are taken at (714) 626-1288.

The ART OF THE AFRICAN - over 125 sculptures, masks, and artifacts - will be the Visual Arts Project's most ambitious exhibition to date as it opens to the public on Saturday January 11 at the Orange Show Fine Arts Gallery. Open daily from 9 to 5 and weekends from 1 to 5 p.m., ART OF THE AFRICAN will be dramatically installed with photomurals, special lighting, changing slides, and African music to supply an authentic background. ART OF THE AFRICAN is defined as the arts of black Africans living south of the Sahara prior to European influences on the art. Ancestor figures from the Dogon and Yoruba tribes, masks from the peoples of the Chokwe, Senofo, N'Gere, Luba, and other peoples of the Sudan, Niger River basin, and the Congo will be featured among the many outstanding works in this vast exhibition. Three precious bronzes from the Nigerian kingdom of Benin show African skill in the "lost-wax" process of bronze casting. Bronze casting was developed as early as 500 B.C. in Africa, long before it was mastered by northern Europeans. The exhibition will also include jewelry, weapons, household utensils and furniture. A special collection of African musical instruments, including a variety of drums, thumb pianos and stringed instruments is featured.

Loans for this comprehensive survey of African art originated primarily with the Museum and Laboratories of Ethnology at UCLA. Other loans came from the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History, the La Jolla Museum of Art, and several private local collections. Cosponsoring the show locally are the Social-Lites, the Business and Professional Women, and the American Association of University Women.

A special fashion show featuring Afro-American styles will highlight the public opening night reception on Friday, January 10, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Gallery.

Jane Wyman Heads Drive For Arthritis

Miss Jane Wyman will serve as the 1969 Campaign Chairman for The Arthritis Foundation, Southern California Chapter president, Dixon W. Kelley announced.

The once-a-year February fund drive will be for the benefit of more than 923,000 arthritis sufferers, men, women and children, living in Southern California.

Accepting her appointment, the Academy-Award winning actress noted that "with arthritis there is little drama." "It is slow misery for its victims," Miss Wyman said. "But every patient can be helped in some degree through proper medical treatment," she added.

In reviewing plans for the annual campaign, Miss Wyman stressed the need to increase financial support of arthritis treatment clinics, arthritis research projects and rheumatic disease training fellowships. These programs are under way at UCLA and USC Medical Centers and at Children's Hospital and are supported by The Arthritis Foundation.

The 1969 fund drive for $825,000 begins at midnight Saturday, February 1 with a 19-hour, star-packed benefit telethon, followed by the Women's Division fashion benefit on Tuesday, February 4, and climaxed with a three-day neighborhood march on Feb. 6, 7 and 8, a door-to-door canvass throughout the area.

San Carlos 'Cap Saturday Has Brilliant Field

The $50,000-added San Carlos Handicap, one of America's most important sprint races for older handicap performers, will highlight next Saturday's (Jan. 11) racing program at Santa Anita with a brilliant field in prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert W. Martin's Rising Market and George E. Robb's Tumiga, who waged an exciting duel in the opening day Palos Verdes Handicap, will renew their rivalry. Rising Market won by a mere head in the six-furlong Palos Verdes. The distance of the San Carlos is seven furlongs.

Another major nominee is Rowan & Whitney's Quicken Tree, acclaimed as California's Horse-of-the-Year for 1968 after having won the $100,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park last October. Quicken Tree, who equalled the world record for 1 1/8 miles at Del Mar last summer, will make his seasonal debut in the San Carlos Handicap.

The roster of past winners of the San Carlos is impressive. Bolero set a then world record of 1:21 flat in winning back in 1951, which still stands up as the stakes record.

National Homemaker Gives Views Of Good Family Life

Mrs. Richard L. Gessford of Coos Bay, Ore., chosen National Homemaker of the Year by Family Circle magazine has her own personal standards where family relationships are concerned. Chosen for the award by the editors of this magazine from approximately 16,000 homemakers, she lists some of her views in the current issue. For example:

ON BEING A GOOD PARENT:

"When Robyn, age 12, wants to do something like having her ears pierced and says, 'But everybody does that!' I ask her to 'list everybody' -- tell me ONE 'everybody'! Then I add, 'Even if there WERE an 'everybody' that still wouldn't make it right for us.'"

The Gessford's rules for their children stress what is important; what isn't important they're rather permissive about. Both Robyn and son Cary, who is four, are aware of what the rules are.

ON DISAGREEING WITH YOUR HUSBAND:

"When we do disagree, we don't talk about it in front of the children, but wait until we're alone. We can usually work it out."

WHAT WILL THE NEIGHBORS THINK?

"I had to learn that the important thing is what I think of myself and my family. I had to sort out my own standards and live in accord with them. As a result, I am more tolerant now about the way OTHER people live and bring up THEIR children."

ON BIRTHDAY PARTIES

"We believe that celebrating a child's birthday helps him feel important, but we play this by ear and do what's convenient."

WIDENING A CHILD'S WORLD

"We feel that meeting people from other countries broadens a child's outlook. We've been fortunate in having foreign students at the University of Oregon visit our home."

VACATION PLANS PLUS AND MINUS CHILDREN

"For whole-family vacations we enjoy going to national parks, neighboring cities and county fairs. But Richard or I also go off on vacations with just one child. Without distractions you have time to see the world through your child's eyes. Richard and I also feel it's important to have a vacation each year by ourselves. We come back refreshed and much better parents for having been away alone together."

PERFECT GRANDPARENTS:

"Neither my husband's parents nor mine try to interfere with the way we bring up our children. On the other hand, when we've consulted either set of grandparents, they've always given us their honest opinions. I wish all young families the same luck!"

The first white man to see Wind Cave in South Dakota was Tom Bingham, who discovered the cave in 1881.

CHP Seeking Eligible Men For Top Jobs

Young men who have been considering a career in law enforcement will soon have an opportunity to take the qualifying examination for the California Highway Patrol, it was announced today by Captain Johnson, CHP Commander in Pomona.

"The written examination for State Traffic Officer will be given on February 15, but applications must be filed with the State Personnel Board by January 24," he declared.

"We are seeking men between 20 and 31 who want a career with a purpose. Any of our officers will be glad to talk with such fellows about the job of a highway patrolman, and we invite them to come into our office any time we are open. We also have information about the examination, including application forms, for their convenience."

In addition to the age factor, applicants must be in good health, have a high school diploma or its equivalent, be at least five feet nine inches tall, but not more than six feet six inches, and meet other requirements.

The pay for traffic officers starts at $728 a month and increases in three annual steps to $842 a month, the Captain explained. Fringe benefits are generous and opportunities for advancement are always open for the qualified.

Big Lakes

The world's largest lake is the Caspian Sea, a salt lake lying between Iran and Russia. The area of the Caspian Sea is 163,800 square miles. World's largest man-made lake is the 175-mile-long reservoir created by the Kariba Dam on the Zambezi River in Rhodesia. When full, it holds 130 million acre-feet of water.

Hey Rabbit!

Meadow mice reproduce at a rapid rate. One pair of meadow mice may have as many as 17 litters a year, each averaging 5 young. If all the mice from a pair survived and reproduced to maximum capacity, there would be a grand total of more than 1,000,000 within a year's time.

Bob Goalby, former winner of the LA Open and 1968 Masters Champion, is a leading contender in the $100,000 LA Open, January 8-12 at Rancho Golf Course.

John Sutter Finally Recognized For Historical Contributions

By Forrest Doucette

1968 - A hectic year of overwhelming events in which the founder of the Capital city of California is given belated credit.

In the minds of many the year 1968 will long be remembered as one of tragedy, disappointment, horror and violence with the most outstanding happy and encouraging event credited to the three Apollo 8 astronauts and their flying trip to the moon and back around the Holiday season.

Even State-Wide events had their bad moments throughout the year many of which were of no credit to anyone.

One event of historical significance to all Californians during 1968 which received little notice in the Southland was the belated recognition given to the founder of the city of Sacramento the capital city of our great state.

HISTORICAL EVENT
This historical event is considered to be of double importance in the annals of our colorful history coming as it did virtually on the eve of the California Bicentennial, 1769-1969, to be observed state-wide beginning with special events in San Diego starting in January to continue throughout the year.

It was on Saturday, October 12, 1968, in the city of Sacramento that Anna Sutter-Young unveiled a black granite monument dedicated to her father, John August Sutter, Jr., on which appeared the words "Founder and Planner of the City of Sacramento".

Strangely enough, this seemed to come as a surprise to those not too well informed on the history of California and who still are under the impression that Sacramento was founded by Captain John August Sutter, father of John Jr.

The unveiling of this monument was indeed a prideful event for Anna Sutter - Young, the last surviving daughter of John Jr., who well knew that it had taken 120 years to publicly acknowledge what her father had done in 1848.

John August Sutter, Jr., arrived in San Francisco on September 14, 1848 from Switzerland on the ship Huntress at the age of 21.

In San Francisco he heard all manner of rumors regarding his father, much of which was most disturbing to this young man who was a total stranger to his father who it appeared, was surrounded by conniving rogues who had placed him in great financial trouble.

He proceeded on his trip by boat up the Sacramento River to meet his father who greeted him tenderly and warmly much to the surprise of this son.

He soon surveyed the situation of poor book-keeping and worse, records of his father's affairs and started to straighten them out to the best of his ability and existing circumstances.

His father had established New Helvetia, a rancho at the confluence of the Sacramento and the American rivers which marked the beginning of the colony that opened the Sacramento Valley to settlement.

He also built a fort that today is bounded by K, I, Twenty - sixth and Twenty-eighth streets in Sacramento and which had great influence in the affairs of that entire area as well as the gold fields along the American river for many years.

A MUST TODAY
Sutter's Fort today is a 'must' to all who visit the city of Sacramento. All this, and more, his father had accomplished after his arrival in California in 1839, upon leaving a family in Switzerland consisting of a wife and five children.

He landed in New York in July of 1834 from La Havre, France, and seemed to participate in numerous affairs, including much bragging of his abilities and experiences and background, all the way to St. Louis, then Kansas City, New Mexico, and back again to Missouri, usually just ahead of trouble.

Upon arrival in San Francisco he found his way up the Sacramento to the area where the American river flows into the Sacramento.

With the discovery of gold on the American river in 1848 Captain Sutter was absent from his New Helvetia and the fort for long periods of time. During this absence his son John Jr., carried on attempting to manage the affairs at the fort but also observing the opportunities presenting themselves in this exploding area on the Sacramento river.

Within a short time of his arrival to join his father he conceived the idea of establishing a city on land located between his father's embarcadero on the Sacramento river and the fort of the New Helvetia Colony.

FIRST SALE

The first sale of lots in Sacramento was announced in San Francisco in December, 1848 and was announced at that time in The California Star and California Publisher.

This eventually led to a conflict between father and son for Captain John Sutter had dreamed of a new town to be established by himself for which he had obtained the services of John Bidwell in 1846 to survey a town-site on the river to be known as Sutterville, and yet by 1848 no town had yet been established there.

A long and bitter conflict ensued with the father insisting that Sacramento as his son envisioned it, must go, and his son and his followers insisting that Sacramento must advance forward.

In the end the son conceded to his father, sold the lots he had come into ownership of and left the area with plans to return to the east coast by way of Acapulco.

This is as far as he got; he liked what he saw there and spent the rest of his life in that part of Mexico.

Sutterville never got very far in its development and eventually had to give way to Sacramento as the major river port for the gold fields.

What was once the dreamed-up Sutterville is now a major shopping center of Sacramento just south of William Land Park.

And but for that black granite monument erected and dedicated to John August Sutter, Jr., for the work he started in December of 1848 to establish a city to be called Sacramento, much of the states population, and even some historians, would continue to give credit for this project to Captain John Sutter, founder of New Helvetia, Sutter's Fort, sometimes called a conniver, an adventurer, an opportunist, a dreamer, and the man who when gold was discovered on his own property by his employees setting off the great California Gold Rush of 1849, still failed to get rich, or even close to it.

Bank of America Sets Up 5% Savings Plan

Bank of America today announced the availability of two new savings plans that pay 5% interest to savers.

"The plans are designed to meet the needs of the average saver," according to President Rudolph A. Peterson. "They provide for payment of the highest possible interest with the continued maximum safety of the world's largest bank."

He added that the individually tailored savings plans are being instituted as a companion service to the bank's "personal choice" checking accounts.

The first plan is a special passbook account requiring a minimum balance of $500. Additional deposits in multiples of $100 may be made at any time. The 5% interest is compounded and credited quarterly.

The second new Bank of America plan is designed to supplement existing time certificate of deposit programs which require deposits in multiples of $1,000. This plan also requires a minimum deposit of $1,000, but deposits in multiples of $100 will be accepted.

The major new advantages of the latter plan, Peterson said, are the 5% rate is guaranteed for 5 years, interest is payable quarterly, and withdrawals are optional at quarterly intervals.
